

Clear Space

Clear space is the minimum amount of empty space that should surround the logo at all times. This buffer helps preserve legibility, prominence, and visual impact by preventing nearby text, imagery, or interface elements from competing with the mark. Use the height of the logo as the minimum padding on all sides.

Use the height of the logo all the way around (in this example, 48px).